From this page you can view information about your RCMP group insurance plans.

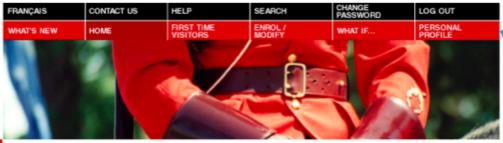

Great West Life is now Canada Life.

Effective January 1, 2020 Great-West Life, London Life and Canada Life came together as the Canada Life Assurance Company.

While the re-branding process is on-going you'll start seeing the Canada Life brand on this site and in plan materials, you may also still see references to Great-West Life for a while. These should be understood as references to Canada Life [™].

- Ensure your Personal information is current
- •You can click on enrol/modify page to do this.
- Check who you have listed as dependents and add/modify as needed.
- •Cost summary just gives you your annual payroll deductions.
- •Coverage on file. Check to ensure what is listed is what you want.
- •For example: Do you want to add dependent life insurance for spouse and/or children?
- •Annual cost for each of the benefits listed under your profile is broken down with a total at the bottom.

IMPORTANT!

- If you die, the beneficiary(ies) listed here will be the ones who receive the benefits.
- Ensure this is kept up to date, especially after change in family status.
- Otherwise, the people receiving the insurance may not be who you actually want to receive it.
- Contact Benefits Centre for info. 1-800-661-7595
- Do you have children under the age of 18 listed as beneficiaries?
- There are things you need to know if that is the case in your situation.
- Know the difference between revocable and irrevocable as it pertains to beneficiaries. •GET or UPDATE your WILL

- •What is at Stake?
- •If Killed in the line of duty......
- •When an officer dies on the job, the spouse is eligible under the Survivor Income Plan for added benefits.
- •Guarantee the survivors have a lifetime family income that is equal to what the family would have received if the officer had not been killed as a result of their duties

- •That continues until the date when the deceased member would have turned 60.
- •At that point, the amount is re-calculated based on the pension the member would receive, and, if less than the pension, the amount is topped up to that figure
- •All RCMP officers have the opportunity to purchase optional group life insurance

- •Basic Life Insurance $160,000.00
- •Optional Life Insurance 18 units up to $198,000.00
- •AD&D Insurance $100,000.00
- Annual Cost $ Not much!!!!
