

Biography: Evan Bray

Evan Bray has 27 years' experience with the Regina Police Service, having worked predominantly as a front line uniformed police officer in Regina's Central and North Districts. Evan was an instructor at the Saskatchewan Police College as well as a team member and Leader on Crowd Control, Crisis Negotiator and Critical Incident Commander Teams.

Evan was involved for many years with the Regina Police Association, the Saskatchewan Federation of Police Officers and sat on the Canadian Police Association Board of Directors.

Evan is currently Co-Chairing a Special Purpose Committee on Illegal Firearms in Canada for the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police. He also sits on the Board of Directors for Basketball Saskatchewan; is a member of the Capital Cabinet for the YWCA Expansion Project; sits on the Governance Board for Coordinated Access Regina and is a member at the Leadership Table for Community Safety and Wellbeing Regina. Evan is also an Executive Member of the Saskatchewan Association of Chiefs of Police.

Evan's wife Jodie is the Curriculum Design Consultant for the Saskatchewan Police College in Regina, his son Cy is a police officer with the Saskatoon Police Service and his daughter Ella is a paramedic in Regina.